

NEGOTIATING IDENTITIES

EXPRESSION AND REPRESENTATION IN THE CHRISTIAN - JEWISH - MUSLIM MEDITERRANEAN

HOME PROGRAM FACULTY & ORGANIZERS PARTICIPANTS FACILITIES FAQ

Aaron Stamper (Programming Assistant)

Biography:

Aaron Stamper is currently a Dual Masters student in Religious Studies and History at the University of Colorado Boulder under the direction of Dr. Brian A. Catlos and Dr. Robert Ferry. He holds two B.A.s in Spanish and Religious Studies from the University of New Mexico and will be graduating with his two master's degrees in May, 2015. Currently, he is under consideration for admission to doctoral programs in North America and plans on continuing in academia with teaching and publishing on late medieval and early modern Mediterranean and Spain. Throughout his undergraduate and graduate studies, Aaron has traveled extensively to Spain, North Africa, and Latin America to pursue language study as well as archival research, which have been generously funded by such fellowships as the FLAS, the Center for Western Civilizations Language Study Grant, CU Boulder Religious Studies Summer Study and Research Grant, along with others. His forthcoming thesis and proposed article will center around themes of colonization and Muslim/Christian relations in sixteenth century Granada.

Aaron Stamper's role in the institute will be to assist the participants in their work to whatever capacity they may require. This includes, but is not limited to, archival support, meal arrangements, communication needs, etc. Aaron can be reached by email at: aaron.stamper@colorado.edu

Important: Generally, US citizens who wish to stay in Spain for tourist or business purposes for up to 90 days do not need a visa. They should travel with a round trip air ticket and a passport valid for a minimum of six months. To confirm this, and for visa information for foreign visitors to Spain, click here.

Disclaimer: Information provided on this site and the documents linked to it is provisional and subject to change without notice at the organizers' discretion. Neither the NEH, UCSC, nor the Mediterranean Seminar take responsibility for the content of external internet sites.

Sponsored In Part By:

