

Biographical Note:

Camilo Gómez-Rivas is associate professor in the department of literature at UCSC where he teaches Mediterranean and Arab-Islamic Studies. His research focuses on the Almoravids, Islamic Law and Mālikism, and Religious Refugees. He is currently working on, among other things, a life of Ibn Rushd/Averroës with a focus on the Almohad context. His book, The Almoravid Maghrib, was published in 2023 by Arc Humanities Press.