

Shelly Chan is a historian of modern and transnational China and Associate Professor of History at UCSC. She is the author of Diaspora's Homeland: Modern China in the Age of Global Migration (Duke 2018) and currently working on a new book project, "The Disappeared Nanyang: An Asian Borderland History." She received her Ph.D. from UCSC in 2009. Before returning to join the faculty in 2020, she has worked at the University of Victoria and the University of Wisconsin-Madison.