

Ony Dunnam holds a Bachelor's Degree in Law from the Andres Bello Catholic University (Caracas-Venezuela), and has completed various courses and seminars on Entrepreneurial Management and Family Business from the same institution. She has extensive experience working in events planning and public relations in both Venezuela and the United States. She has been the events coordinator at the Center for the Humanities for five years.