HOME PROGRAM FACULTY & ORGANIZERS PARTICIPANTS FACILITIES FAQ

The stipend for overseas NEH Summer Institutes is $3300. Prior to acceptance participants must agree to reimburse the organizers for pre-paid accommodation (€1140, or approximately $1425) with their first stipend installment before the program commences, unless they opt to make their own arrangements (see below). Airfare to Barcelona varies according to time of travel, point of departure, and airline and route taken. Participants traveling from the US can expect to spend $800-1600 for airfare. Successful applicants are urged to make transport arrangements as soon as they have been notified of their acceptance.

In recent years Barcelona has become one of Europe's most expensive cities, a fact which has been aggravated by the deterioration of the dollar. At time of writing (November 2014) 1 Euro (e) is approximately \$1.25 USD. By way of comparison, a coffee in Barcelona may cost  $\pounds$ 1.50, a cocktail  $\pounds$ 5, a three-course lunch  $\pounds$ 8-15, a mid-range restaurant dinner  $\pounds$ 20, a movie  $\pounds$ 6-8, taxi from the airport to the city center  $\pounds$ 35, train ticket from the airport to the city center,  $\pounds$ 3.50, 10 public transport tickets  $\pounds$ 7.20.

Important: Generally, US citizens who wish to stay in Spain for tourist or business purposes for up to 90 days do not need a visa. They should travel with a round trip air ticket and a passport valid for a minimum of six months. To confirm this, and for visa information for foreign visitors to Spain, click here.
