

Making Friends and Enemies in Spain and Spanish America

This essay explores the practices of friendship in Seville and Spanish America during the first half of the sixteenth-century.

It is based on the written narratives of the nobleman and soldier Alonso Enríquez de Guzmán (1499-1547) and his depiction of friendly unions signed at church.