

Biographical paragraph:

Thomas (Tom) Barton is Professor of History at the University of San Diego. His research focuses on interfaith relations, legal history, and urban/municipal history. He received his AB from Princeton and PhD from Yale. He is the author of the award-winning monographs Contested Treasure: Jews and Authority in the Crown of Aragon (Penn State, 2015) and Victory's Shadow: Conquest and Governance in Medieval Catalonia (Cornell, 2019). Two monographs are forthcoming: Negotiating Christendom: The Politics of Diocese Restoration in the Medieval Crown of Aragon (under review with Penn UP), and Mechanisms of Episcopal Power in Conquest Iberia (forthcoming, Cambridge UP). He also has two in-progress monographs entitled The Communal Roots of Interfaith Violence in Later Medieval Iberia and Living and Dying in a Later Medieval Mediterranean City.