

Professor O'Neill is Associate Professor of Anthropology at Saint Louis University. His research explores the cultural and spatial politics of cities with an ethnographic focus on Bucharest, Romania. O'Neill is the author of Underground: Dreams and Degradations in Bucharest (University of Pennsylvania Press: 2024) and The Space of Boredom: Homelessness in the Slowing Global Order (Duke University Press: 2017).